How to apply for SFMNP?

Online Application Process

Step 1: Complete online application

- All past participants and new applicants must apply through the application link.
- The electronic application with your email address is the most efficient way to apply and get approved for the SFMNP.
- Once the online application is complete, the Ohio Department of Aging will email a notification of approval for the program. The email will come from support@homegrownbenefits.com the email will include a link for registration

Step 2: Registration

- The notification approval email from support@homegrownbenefits.com will include a link to activate ones account.
- A step-by-step guide on how to register your account will be linked in the approval email. Account must be registered before use.
- Participants can either set up and online account or download the "Homegrown Benefits for eFMNP" app from their phone app store (supported by Android and Apple phones).
- The Homegrown Benefits for the eFMNP app will be used to check account balances and will be used to purchase produce.

A dedicated support line from Homegrown Support will be available to help participants directly.

Online Application process without an email

When the applicant completes the application online without entering an email, approval notification will be made by mail. This process will take a little longer, 3-4 weeks according to Ohio Department on Aging. From there the participant will receive a physical card with the $50 to spend on produce at participating local farmers market and road side stands.
